MAKES RAPID HEADWAY.

Add This Fact to Your Store of Knowledge.

Kidney disease advances so rapidly that many a person is firmly in its grasp before aware of its progress.
Prompt attention should be given the slightest symptom of kidney disorder.
If there is a dull pain in the back, headaches, dizzy spells or a tired, worn-out feeling, or if the urine is dark, foul-smelling, irregular and attended with pain, procure a good kidney remedy at once.

Your townspeople recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Read the statement of this Santa Fe citizen: Jose Ortiz y Baca, Alto street, Santa Fe, N. M., says: "In 1907 I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Stripling Burrows & Co.'s drug store and used them for pains in my back which had troubled me at intervals for three years. Doan's Kidney Pills brought prompt relief and proved so satisfactory that I willingly gave a public statement in their favor. Now, after two and a half years have passed, I gladly confirm every word of that testimonial. I can add that I have since used Doan's Kidney Pills, giving the same thorough trial and have received the greatest possible benefit.
I know that this remedy is a sure cure for backache and kidney complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The New Mexican Printing Company has on hand a large supply of pads and tablets suitable for school work, the desk, and also for lawyers and merchants; good everywhere. We will sell them at 5 cents in book form.

Served as coffee, the new coffee substitute known to grocers everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, will trick even a coffee expert. Not a grain of real coffee in it either.
Pure healthful toasted grains, malt, nuts, etc., have been so cleverly blended as to give a wonderfully satisfying coffee taste and flavor. And it is "made in a minute," too. No tedious 20 to 30 minutes boiling. Sold by Frank Andrews.

TRUE, EVERY WORD OF IT

Great Possibilities of the Rio Grande Valley

WISCONSIN SETS THE PAGE

That the Mesilla, the Espanola and Other Valleys Should Emulate.

Las Cruces, N. M., Aug. 16, 1909.
Editor New Mexican:

What is the value of land in the valley of the Rio Grande? In answer to this, it may be said that it is problematic if the land is plowed with a forked stick, and planted in calico corn, it has no great value. If it is planted in old fashioned muskueles, that resemble a small yellow pumpkin more than anything else, it has no great value, but when properly cultivated and planted in cantaloupes, alfalfa, bermuda onions, vineyards, and orchards, it has an actual value ranging from $200.00 to $500.00 per acre.
The shipments of cantaloupes in carload lots now going on from Mesquite Sidling, Mesilla Park, Las Cruces and Dona Ana, and the prices obtained therefor is a practical demonstration that the lands in the Mesilla valley are easily worth $500.00 per acre, and yet we are only skimming around on the surface, as it were. When the time arrives for us to enter in and upon a large and more permanent sphere of production, we will do as they are now doing in Jefferson county, Wisconsin.
Jefferson county is a small county. We have more land subject to irrigation in Dona Ana county than they have under cultivation in Jefferson county, and a much better climate. The farmers in Jefferson county have developed their resources and we haven't, and that is the difference between Dona Ana county, New Mexico, and Jefferson county, Wisconsin.

A number of years ago, alfalfa was introduced in Jefferson county, Wisconsin. Now it is one of the great crops of that county. There they cut two crops annually; here we cut four and five. There they have to inoculate the soil and sometimes treat it with an application of lime. Here in Dona Ana county, alfalfa takes to the soil as naturally as a duck to water, and the difficulty here is to kill the pesky stuff once it is planted.

Reliable statistics from the experiment station at Fort Atkinson, Jefferson county, Wisconsin, show that the value of the agricultural products of that county amount to $5,000,000.00 annually; divided as follows: $2,000,000.00 in butter.
$2,000,000.00 in cheese.
$500,000.00 from the sale of dairy stock.

$500,000.00 from the sale of hogs raised on the by-products of the butter and cheese factories.

There are only six cheese factories in the county.

There is no reason in the world why Dona Ana county, New Mexico, cannot produce equal to Jefferson county in these dairy products, and there is every reason why this production should be exceeded; the climatic conditions being so much more favorable, and that it will be done is just as certain as that we are here. To do these things suitable buildings must be erected, silos must be constructed and the necessary preparations made to handle and carry on this important business. I do not believe there is a county in the valley of the Rio Grande in New Mexico from Espanola to the Texas state line but that can duplicate the dairy operations carried on in Jefferson county, Wisconsin. Now the question arises what is the value of this class of land. I believe all of the irrigable land in the valley of the Rio Grande, which has a sure water right is cheap land at $100.00 per acre.

SOCIALISTS BEHIND DISTURBANCE

Some Important Discoveries Made by the San Antonio Police in Raid.

San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 17.—A raid on a house in the Mexican quarters in this city, at 512 Cameron street, by United States Deputy Marshal Fred H. Lancaster of this city, made last Tuesday evening, has resulted in the activity and membership of the Mexican revolutionary juntas in the United States being laid bare. The lists from Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, Oklahoma and California show that practically every town was represented by a number of Mexicans supporting the movement to overthrow Diaz.
Among the papers found were little cards, thoroughly indexed, and bearing the heading: "Club co-operative para la compra de armas"—co-operative club for the supply of arms. It would appear that the members of the society paid dues which were then devoted to the purchase of arms to be used by the revolutionists. The printed matter on the card further states that the signer of it will pay one dollar a month until $20 have been paid.

This would be enough to purchase a second hand Mauser or other rifle and several thousand rounds of ammunition. In order that the factor of chance might not be overlooked, being ever dear to the heart of the Mexican, the gun as soon as purchased from the total of money collected was to be sent to the member having then paid the closest to the amount signed for. After this he was released of further obligations.

Many letters from prominent Mexican revolutionists, some of them now in the toils of the United States government, were found. Likewise was a great number of photographs obtained. Among the latter are pictures of Ricardo Flores Magon, Villareal, and many others.

Seals found seem to show that the United States had been divided into military zones as had also been done with the Mexican Republic. The word employed is "zona." One of the seals shows that the commander of the local zone lives in San Antonio. His name, however, if known to the federal authorities, cannot be ascertained. Antonio de P. Araujo also figures on one of the seals and will now have a hard time to avoid doing his term of two years and six months at the Leavenworth federal penitentiary. His seal reads: "Antonio de P. Araujo, director." What is thought to be the great seal of the society reads: "Junta organizadora del partido liberal Mexico, St. Louis, Missouri." Translating this mean: "Organizing central body of the Liberal party of Mexico, St. Louis, Mo." Another seal is worded: "Delegado General." The seal mostly used on the papers found reads: "Tercera zona revolucionaria del norte, primera comandancia." In English: "Third revolutionary zone of the North, first commandery. Codes found proved to be of a very difficult character and so far none of the letters written in it have been deciphered.
The letters used in the code seem to be ancient Greek or a modification of it. Oklahoma seems to have been the field of greatest activity of the society. Bales of newspapers and handbills of a highly inflammatory nature were found. One of the latter seems to be of socialistic tendencies.
Its heading translated into English reads: "Manifiesto to the workers of all countries." This is signed by Enrique Flores Magon and Pravedis G. Guerrero, and is dated May 10, 1909, showing conclusively that the society is as active as ever.

The officers who made the raid do not think that the efforts of the United States government have wholly succeeded at this time to stamp out the society. At best the junta seems to have only been crippled. After the engagement of Las Vaces on June 16, 1908, this government made every effort to up-root the Mexican revolutionary juntas, and a number of men alleged to have been connected with the movement are now either in the penitentiary are waiting for trial.

The work of the United States secret service men in the case has not been easy by any means. The fact of the matter is that the Mexican population in the United States, many members of which are political refugees, is extremely reticent when it comes to imparting information affecting Mexico in any way. Besides, there is no denying the fact that fully 65 per cent of the Mexicans north of the Rio Grande are in sympathy with every movement calculated to end the Diaz regime in the mother country.
For this reason it became necessary for the United States government to put secret service agents on the trail of juntaists who were not known locally. It has been known here for some time that the agents here instead of being the shadowers had become the shadowed.

Granulated Sore Eyes Cured.
"For twenty years I suffered from a bad case of granulated sore eyes, says Martin Boyd, of Henrietta, Ky.
"In February, 1903, a gentleman asked me to try Chamberlain's Salve. I bought one box and used about two-thirds of it and my eyes have not given me any trouble since." This salve is for sale by all druggists.
